WHO MADE YOUR CLOTHES

ZONGO Brigitte (AFEPO)

“My name is Zongo Brigitte, I am 31 years old, and I am mother of 4. I did this work for several years here in Ponsomtenga. Weaving is a good source of money for me, and I like it. Thanks to this order, I have been able to support my children education. I spent most of the money in School fees and to provide food for my children. Thanks to the collaboration with CABES, I can save some money in a microfinance account. I thank CABES and its partners for supporting our work.”

NIKIEMA Joséphine (AFEPO)

“My name is Nikiema Josephine, I am 42 years old and I am mother of 3. I have joined the group 13 years ago. This work represents a stable source of income for me. Before this work, I was doing a lot of small activities to find money. Today, thanks to AFEPO, CABES and regular orders, I can take care of my children and to support my husband. Thanks to the collaboration with CABES, I am now a professional artisan with a National Certificate and a professional artisan’s card. Now, I have an account with a microfinance company, and I would like to thank all those who contribute to promote our work”.

POUAKMOUAGDA Marceline (AFEPO)

“My name is Pouakmouagda Marceline, I am 33 years old, and I am mother of 4. I joined the group 10 years ago. Before joining the group, I was selling woods. This work is an important source of income, and I am happy to work in AFEPO The money. I received from this order was spent in school fees and in food. A part of the income I receive from this work is saved in my microfinance account.”

NACOULMA Albertine (AFEPO)

“My name is Nacoulma Albertine, I am 44 years old and I am mother of 3. It is always a pleasure to work on international orders. It is always an opportunity to develop new patterns. Each order is an opportunity for me to gain money and to develop new skills. This work makes me feel proud and represent my main source of income. Collaborating with CABES and its international partners is important because it values our work. I want to thank them for trusting us”. “
